

Marine Jet Power moves APAC headquarters to South Korea

Singapore 2016-12-12

After six years in Singapore, Marine Jet Power today announced that it has selected Busan, South Korea for its new APAC headquarters location.

“We have successfully established Marine Jet Power in Singapore and it is now time to expand further” says Hans Andersson, Regional Director APAC.

“Moving to South Korea is part of our long-term strategy for the region. We are currently involved in several strategic projects including a program for local production, and the move is a vital step to support the new business” he continues. The new headquarter to be headed by Silver Park stationed in Busan since many years.

Simultaneously, Marine Jet Power appointed KIN Marine Pte Ltd as its Singapore based representative for sales and service in South-East Asia. “I am really excited to carry on the business, now as MJP’s representative, and will start by strengthening our service organization” says Khai Nizam owner of KIN Marine. Khai has worked for Marine Jet Power since 2014, and is a familiar face to MJP’s partners and customers in the region, ensuring a smooth and seamless transition.

Hans Andersson moves back to Sweden in April 2017 and continues as Regional Director based in Uppsala.
